Not Yet.

O country, marvel of the earth!
O realm to sudden greatness grown!
The age that gloried in thy birth,
Shall it behold thee overthrown?
Shall traitors lay that greatness low?
No, land of Hope and Blessing, No!

And we, who wear thy glorious name,
Shall we, like cravens, stand apart,
When those whom thou hast trusted aim
The death-blow at thy generous heart?
Forth goes the battle-cry, and lo!
Hosts rise in harness, shouting, No!

And they who founded, in our land,
The power that rules from sea to sea,
Bled they in vain, or vainly planned
To leave their country great and free?
Their sleeping ashes, from below,
Send up the thrilling murmur, No!

Knit they the gentle ties which long
These sister States were proud to wear,
And forged the kindly links so strong
For idle hands in sport to tear?
For scornful hands aside to throw?
No, by our fathers' memory, No!

Our humming marts, our iron ways,
Our wind-tossed woods on mountain crests,
The hoarse Atlantic, with his bays,
The calm, broad Ocean of the West,
And Mississippi's torrent flow,
And loud Niagara, answer, No!

Not yet the hour is nigh, when they
Who deep in Eld's dim twilight sit,
Earth's ancient kings, shall rise and say,
"Proud country, welcome to the pit!
So soon art thou, like us, brought low!"
No, sullen group of shadows, No!

For now, behold, the arm that gave
The victory in our fathers' day,
Strong, as of old, to guard and save—
That mighty arm which none can stay—
On clouds above and fields below,
Writes, in men's sight, the answer, No!

—William Cullen Bryant, in the N. Y. Ledger.

Variety.

A Western paper publishes the following: "We knew an old man who believed that 'what was to be would be.' He lived in a region infested by very savage Indians. He always took his gun with him, but this time he found that some one of his family had taken it. As he would not go without it, his friends tantalized him by saying that there was no danger of the Indians; that he would not die till his time came anyhow. 'Yes,' said the old fellow, 'suppose I was to meet an Indian, and his his time had come, it wouldn't do not to have my gun.'"

"When a man treats me with a want of respect," said a philosophical poor man, "I comfort myself with the reflection that it is not myself which he slights, but an old shabby coat and hat, which, to say the truth, have not any particular claims to admiration. So if my hat and coat choose to fret about it, let them—but it is nothing to me."

"Do you support Abe Lincoln?"
"No sir!"
"Do you support Douglas?"
"No sir!"
"Do you support Bell, then?"
"No sir!"
"Who do you support, Breckinridge?"
"No, by thunder," shouted the screamer, "I supports Betsey and the children, and it's mighty hard scratchin' to get along at that, with wheat at 50 cts. a bushel."

"I see," said a young lady, "that the bookseller advertises blank declarations for sale, I wish I could get one."
"Why?" asked the mother.
"Because, ma, Mr. D. is too bashful to ask me to marry him, and, perhaps, if I were to fill a blank declaration with the question, he would sign it."

A REFLECTION.—Our old friend Bangs was invited by a friend to his house, to partake of a julep, of which he was very fond. It was handed to him in a silver goblet lined with gold. After sipping a portion, Bangs turned to his host, and remarked that it was astonishing what an addition a strawberry gave to a julep. His friend replied that he was sorry he did not have a strawberry to put in it. "But," said Bangs, "there is certainly one in this." Upon his host asserting the contrary, he insisted that he saw one distinctly, and drained the goblet to get the berry, when, lo, and behold! he found that it was the reflection of his own nose!

M. DE BALZAC was lying awake in bed when he saw a man enter his room cautiously, and attempted to pick the lock of his writing desk. The rogue was not a little disconcerted at hearing a loud laugh from the occupant of the apartment, whom he supposed asleep.

"Why do you laugh?" asked the thief.

"I am laughing, my good fellow," said M. de Balzac, to think what pains you are taking, and what risk you run, in hope of finding money by night in the desk where the lawful owner can never find any by day."

The thief "evacuated Flanders" at once.

When young Hodge first came up to town, his father told him that it would be polite when being helped to dinner to say to the host,

"Half that, if you please." It so happened that at the first dinner to which he was invited, a sucking pig was one of the dishes. The host, pointing with his knife to the young porker, asked, "Well, Mr. Hodge, will you have this our favorite dish, or haunch of mutton?" Upon which, recollecting his lesson, he replied, "Half of that, if you please," to the consternation of all present.

A gentleman inquired of a humble Hibernian the reason why his countrymen are so apt to make bulls. "I'll tell you that, your honor," replied Paddy. "We never make bulls in our own language; it is when we speak English that we do it—so, your honor, they are English bulls, not Irish."

When you have bought one thing, you must buy ten more, so that your appearance may be all of a piece.

Legal Notice.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County. A. M. A. Blanchet, Complainant, vs. Oswald Travaillot, Defendant. In Chancery.

TO OSWALD TRAVAILLOT, Defendant: You are hereby notified that A. M. A. Blanchet has this day filed in my office his bill of complaint and commenced a suit against you, in which he claims that on the tenth day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, you made and delivered to him a certain promissory note for the sum of six hundred dollars, payable ten months after date, with interest at the rate of two per cent. per month, and at the same time made, acknowledged and delivered a certain mortgage deed upon lots numbered three and four in block number three, in Couch's claim or addition to the City of Portland, in the county aforesaid, as security for the payment of said note; and complainant prays for a decree of foreclosure and for the sale of the said mortgaged premises to pay the amount due upon said mortgage, to-wit: The sum of six hundred dollars and interest as aforesaid since the twentieth of September, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, and for a judgment against you for any balance which may remain unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale of said property for the payment of said debt; and you are further notified that unless you appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah on the second Monday of November, A. D. 1861, and then and there answer the said bill of complaint, the same will be taken as confessed, and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of this Court this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT 11, 1861

Disappointed Patriots

Take a cat and exhibit a piece of fresh beef to it, pendent from a string; take a dog, and hold the same nutritious article of diet just out of his reach; imagine a pig, with his nose stuck through the palings looking into a potatoe patch; suppose a calf to have her head through a ware-house window, vainly striving to reach a bung-hole in a salt barrel; or, fancy a toper looking at gentlemen at the "Bank" drinking an elegant julep, and you have the exact counterpart of any one of about twenty five aspirants to the seat in the U S Senate, which, it is fondly hoped by the sympathizers, Col. Baker is about to vacate

It is the misfortune of Col Baker that he cannot please the sympathizers. They do not like him. No matter what he does, he is wrong, in their judgment. But if Col Baker would resign there would be a change of opinion. "It would be an act of justice," one would say; another would say "Baker is not such a bad man, after all," and some newspaper aspirants might even go so far as to wish him success in his "new career, for which he is so eminently fitted by his Mexican War experience."

But not the least remarkable change, would be the opinion entertained by "the twenty five," of Governor Whiteaker's mental calibre. We have definite information that the gentleman who called him "a Josh" is prepared to retract that offensive sobriquet; the aspirant who affixed the word "Muggins" to him, denies it, and the one who called him "Old Fiddling Whiteaker" is prepared to declare that he only spoke of the Governor as "a finished amateur performer." This last is on the authority of the Democrat. Besides, there are quite a number who "didn't say nothing," that are prepared to eat some very large and slimy toads, if they can only get to be Senators. But, alas! for the vanity of human ambition, the evanescence of human hopes, and the destruction of human prospects! there can only be one Senator in the place of Col. Baker; the "twenty-four" blackbirds will have to go without the appointment, and this one stands no chance of that position until after Col. Baker resigns.

South Fork Gold Mines

From a gentleman of our acquaintance who has just come down from the South Fork of Clearwater, we have some valuable information in regard to the mining prospects and of further discoveries to the southward.

A tributary of the South Fork called Crooked River,—perhaps the principal branch of the South Fork,—fifteen miles south-east of the Red Creek, towards the Salmon River, has been recently prospected, and the yield has caused an immense "rush." The gold is very coarse, being in the main, in pieces from 25 cents to $3 00. Those prospects are found for a distance of fifteen miles along the river. About 300 men had started for Crooked River up to the 30th of August.

A party had come into the American Creek Diggings, that had prospected all the way up Salmon River, and report that prospects were satisfactory, and the mining country extensive.

There are about 1500 men in the Elk City district, and a general feeling of encouragement is expressed by them all. But very few are leaving, while the proportion of claims that are opened is small as compared to the number of men there. Those who have not got to work yet, are cheered by the fact that not a single claim that has been fairly proved, is a failure. The lowest average wages of a claim fairly opened and worked is $8 to the man a day.

The trail from the foot of the Bitter Root Mountains to Elk City is now entirely cleared of obstructions. The timber is cut away to six feet in width for a distance of forty odd miles, and all fallen timber carefully removed. On the side hills on Newsom's Creek much grading has been done, and the trail is now nearly all that could be wished for in a mountain country.

Condition of Arizona

The Texan force has appeared in Mesilla Valley, and after some slight battles, have taken prisoners the U. S. Garrison at Fort Filmore, of some 500 men. We suppose that Arizona may now be regarded as in possession of the Secessionists and Indians. The Arizonian, published at Tucson, gives a very sad account of the condition of Arizona. Our Government purchased of Mexico the territory of Arizona, a land of deserts, and generally worthless, for which they gave ten millions. They sent troops there to protect the people who might migrate there, and the scattered settlements of Mexicans, against the incursions of the Indians. This was done at great expense to Government and with great inconvenience to the gallant officers and soldiers, exiled in that region from all the comforts of civilized life. Arizona was purchased to subserve the interests of the South, and it was intended, if ever the South permitted a Pacific Rail Road to be built, it should be run over that territory. The white population who migrated to Arizona—with few exceptions, were men of Southern instincts—most of them would do no disgrace to gangs of filibusters. They were ready and were there, to strike for secession when Toombs and Wigfall and their coadjutors gave the word. They promptly raised the standard of secession soon after the Southern rebels commenced their stealings and robbings from the general Government. As before said, the "Secesh" Flag now waves over all Arizona. But what is now her condition? Let the Arizonian answer:

"Our prosperity has departed. The mail is withdrawn, the soldiers are gone and their garrisons burned to the ground; the miners murdered, and the mines abandoned; the stock raisers and farmers have abandoned their crops and herds to the Indians, and the population generally have fled, panic-struck and naked, in search of refuge. We think no man ever before saw desolation so wide spread. From end to end of the Territory, except alone in Tucson and its immediate vicinity, there is not a human habitation. * * * We are hemmed in upon all sides by the savage and unrelenting Apache, by whom the unwary are frequently assassinated on their very thresholds. There are very few of us, and we have in our midst an overwhelming and naturally inimical Mexican element, who only wait until we become so weakened by Apache raids and emigration that it may be done with impunity, when they will in all human probabilities, wipe us out to a man. Add to this that most of us are poor, and many of us are afoot, and unarmed, and without a chance to earn a dollar; and that to the nearest friendly settlement on either side it is three hundred miles, through a country hostile and for the most barren and unwatered, and the peril of our condition may be conceived. The only reason under heaven that can be assigned for the injustice and bad treatment we have undergone is, that the people of Arizonia are Southern in feeling and have dared avow it. The eleven starred banner that floats over the town of Tucson shows that her citizens acknowledge no allegiance to abolition rule."

The Arizonian continues: "On the 3d inst., about mid-day, the town of Tubac was attacked by a large body of Indians, numbering perhaps one hundred or more, killing two of the inhabitants and taking all the stock in that vicinity. The citizens fighting from their houses, finally driving them from the town, with a loss of some seven or eight of their number, when they retired to a distance of a few hundred yards, killed a beef and encamped for the night.

"As soon as it could prudently be done after the Indians had left, a messenger was dispatched to Tucson with the intelligence and to procure wagons and an escort of citizens to bring the inhabitants, who had determined to abandon the town, to this place."

The Arizonian goes on to say that since the withdrawal of the Overland Mail,—which never should have gone through that Territory—ten seventieths of the white male population have been killed by the Indians,—that "every mine has been baptised in blood; and over and over has the mining stock been stolen by Indian and Mexican thieves."

Arizona is evidently enjoying the benefits of Secession. Probably she will not be disturbed in their enjoyment for sometime to come. We trust that it will be about the last portion of Secessia which will be brought under Government. Let her inhabitants enjoy all the benefits of Secession for a reasonable time.

It is now well understood that Gen. Sumner and the five regiments ordered out by the President to be placed under his command, are to proceed to Texas, passing through Arizona. We presume they will not spend their strength in subjugating the rebels in Arizona. If they come on them they will give them severe lessons—but their aim is Texas. The San Francisco Journal supposed, that if the regiments are raised in time, of which there is a fair prospect, they will leave in November or thereabouts, and will probably winter in the valley of the Rio Grande, at or near Mesilla or El Paso, and proceed towards San Antonio after the roads become settled in the spring. This would make the trip comparatively pleasant for the men, and would compel Texas to turn her attention to her own borders instead of sending assistance to the Confederates of the North.

The [illegible] portion of Secessia which we would like to see let alone—and that is Arizona.

News Items

A Washington correspondent says that in addition to the camps of instruction on the northern and eastern sides of Washington, it is the intention of the War Department to concentrate at Baltimore the next 100,000 troops that are raised. The troops now there are the nucleus of this immense force. Some of the reasons for the selection of Baltimore for this purpose have already been indicated. The cheapness and abundance of the Baltimore markets, and the ease and facility with which troops can be moved from there here, are the most weighty reasons. At present there are exactly 10,820 troops at and near Baltimore.

It is very singular that in all the accounts and letters we receive of the overland emigration, no estimate has been given of their numbers. We only learn that it is very large. A Jacksonville letter writer says that it is equal to the large emigration of 1852. We trust it is so. The country is in the best possible condition to receive them.

Our private information from the Nez Perces mines amount to this:—many claims are paying well,—some have been exhausted,—but there is no doubt of gold in abundance existing in the country. Many miners will come down to spend the winter with the view of returning in the spring. On the whole, we have unimpaired confidence in the richness and abundance of gold in the region round about the Nez Perces mines.

A dispatch from New York, Aug 16th, says: "The Grand Jury in the United States Circuit Court, presented the Journal of Commerce, News, Day Book, Freeman's Journal and Brooklyn Eagle, for expressing sympathy with the rebels. They ask the advice of the Court, saying they will be glad to learn that their conduct is subject to indictment and punishment." [These treasonable sheets furnish extracts for the secession papers of Oregon.]

The St. Louis Republican has found that its existence depended upon sustaining the Government. Hence its present patriotic tone. The Morning Herald, Missourian and War Bulletin, of that city—secession sheets, whose objects were "to give aid and comfort to the enemy,"—have been suppressed. He that is not for us is against us.

It is charged that the New York News and Day Book are sustained by means which come from the rebels,—and we know that they are run for their benefit. The indications are that their treason has terminated about this time. It is said that there is a secession press in this State that is run by means of material aid from Secessionists in California. That press will probably run sometime longer.

The secession press has much to say about "a free press." Their opinion of a free press is, that while the citadel is surrounded by enemies, "a free press" should be used to promote mutiny within for the benefit of the enemy without. All the doctrines and preachings of the secession press are aimed to benefit the enemy.

Nothing further has been heard of the reported murders of emigrants near Goose Lake—on the route to Southern Oregon.

SHIEL AND THAYER.—The Committee on Elections reported that the Constitution of Oregon fixed the time for the election of members of Congress—that the matter was beyond the control of the State Legislature—and that Shiel was entitled to the seat. This report was agreed to by a majority of one in the Committee. The House accepted the report.

NEGROES IN THE SOUTHERN ARMY.—A correspondent of the New York Tribune says: "There are no colored regiments or companies in arms in Virginia. There are not arms enough for white men, and negroes could do nothing with firearms, if they had them; and if entrusted with any weapons, and skilled to their use, they would be more likely to use them against their masters than for them. There are negroes in every regiment but they are used as servants or as musicians, etc., while large numbers of them are employed in erecting fortifications, ditching, et cetera."

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

TO MERCHANTS AND ADVERTISERS.

Merchants and advertisers generally are invited to call and examine the circulation of THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN. The space allotted to advertising is limited to six columns, so that no advertisement can be lost in the paper.

NO QUORUM.—The Board of Delegates of the Fire Department adjourned on Monday evening last, without transacting any business. No quorum was present.

TELESCOPIC VIEW OF THE HEAVENS.—A gentleman, with a mounted telescope, has been seen at some of the street corners in Portland, offering a sight of the Heavens through his instrument for twenty-five cents. If it be at all, a good instrument—and its length appears to be sufficient—it will furnish a rich treat to the admirers of nature. The moon will soon be near her full, and a telescopic view of her will never be forgotten.

LIVELY.—Quite a number of teams laden with produce were in town yesterday.

ADJOURNED.—The camp meeting which commenced on Friday last, at Kelly's camp ground, adjourned last evening. Some fifteen or twenty persons professed religion, and were received in the Church on probation.

OREGON VOLUNTEERS.—It is rumored here that the Governor intends to make a call for Volunteers in Oregon, to protect our frontier settlements from hostile Indians.

LIBERAL.—We are requested to say that the steamers Express and Vancouver will carry passengers from this city to the State Fair grounds for half price.

Mr. Parkinsen, the new mail contractor on the Sound, was unable to make any arrangement for conveying the mail during his absence in San Francisco,—the old contractors, Messrs. Scranton and Fleming, were left to do this work. They quarreled—had a genuine knock-down on board the Eliza Anderson—that boat was tied up by legal process—no mails are carried,—and Capt. Fleming and D. W. Lowell have gone down to San Francisco for another steamer. So says the Steilacoom Herald.

The Dayton (Ohio) Empire and Albany Argus belong to the same class of papers as the New York Journal of Commerce, the New York Day Book, and New York News. It is a very proper paper to furnish copy for secession journals on this coast.

There is not a paper in the United States that is not in favor of peace; but there are no papers, other than those controlled by Secessionists, who are in favor of any other than an honorable peace, and that they do not expect will be effected until Secessionism is crushed out.

Illinois has some forty-three regiments enlisted for the war. As many more could be easily obtained.

The Advertiser makes the silly statement that the people of the North are not in favor of prosecuting the war. The people of the Northern States are sending regiments to the war as fast as they can be taken; and it is only a few days since that the Banks of the North gave notice to the Government that one hundred and fifty millions of dollars awaited its pleasure.

The Secession press says that the times are hard in the loyal States. Not a doubt of it. And the people of the free loyal States know who caused these hard times—Southern rebels; and they are taking the most effectual measures to put them down.

We do not learn that that "straight-out Republican," Governor Whiteaker, has appointed a United States' Senator to oust Colonel Baker.

CHANGE.—J. H. Slater, Esq., has retired from the Corvallis Union. Mr. P. J. Malone takes the editorial charge. It will continue to be the same in politics as heretofore.

J. H. M'Call, belonging to Capt. Applegate's company, which went from Rogue River to meet and protect emigrants on the Southern route, has returned. They met a company near Clear Lake, of some forty persons and nine wagons. They were furnished with provisions and escorted in by thirteen of the company. Capt. Applegate, with twenty-three men, started north on an exploring tour. They will be in, in a few days. Seven of the company proceeded on to Honey Lake Valley.

The miners at Washoe are calling for a Branch Mint. Capital idea. If the silver is coined there, it will go into circulation.

Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.—A specific for dyspepsia, diarrhœa, dysentery, general debility, chills and fever, liver complaint, bilious remittent fevers, and the pains and weaknesses which creep upon us in old age. For these ailments we quietly invited a trial and a verdict. The trial has come off, the verdict has been rendered, and the Bitters are to-day the most popular remedy, for the time they have been in existence, in this or any other country. It lives and continues to thrive and increase in popularity with marvelous rapidity, simply because the world wants it, will have it, cannot do without it. The dyspeptic demands it as his only hope, the victims of diarrhœa or dysentery believe in it, the bilious sufferer dare not let one bottle run out before he gets another. Both sexes, all ages, all classes, regard it as the most wonderful Invigorant ever compounded. Hence the enormous demand. Sold everywhere by Druggists, Liquor Dealers, and Grocers.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. june26daw1y

Commercial and Financial.

The immense crops likely to be produced in Illinois, and the stagnation of trade, is reducing the prices of produce to very low figures. Oregon farmers are doing a very fair business, compared with their brethren in Illinois. It is supposed, however, that these low prices will be temporary. We quote from the Chicago Prairie Farmer, July 20:

Flour, $3@$4 50 ⅌ bbl.; wheat, Spring, [illegible]@62c ⅌ bush.; corn, 18c; oats, 13@[illegible]; beans, $1 ⅌ bush.; potatoes, 10@16c. Poultry—chickens, $1 50@$1 75 ⅌ doz.; peas, [illegible]@62½c ⅌ bush.; hay, $4@$4 50 ⅌ ton.

We have no changes or improvements to note in the Portland or San Francisco markets.
